

Mallory Morales

Program Assistant

Mallory Morales is a Program Assistant at the Jim Joseph Foundation where she supports various projects and initiatives. Prior to joining the Foundation, she was a Senior Account Manager at an electronics waste recycler that created a closed-loop system to keep e-waste recycled and reused locally in the Bay Area.

Mallory holds a Bachelor's Degree in Journalism from Loyola University Chicago. She loves exploring Bay Area hiking and taking road trips with friends and family.