

Rachel Halevi

Program Assistant

Rachel Halevi is a Program Assistant at the Jim Joseph Foundation, contributing to both the grants administration and program teams. Growing up in Hawaii, where the Jewish community was quite small, Rachel's Jewish identity was solidified at Camp Newman and was strengthened through her participation and leadership in NFTY and CAMERA.

Rachel holds a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology and Judaic Studies from the University of Arizona and a Master's Degree in Crisis and Trauma from Tel Aviv University. While living in Israel, Rachel interned/volunteered in a variety of organizations, including Natal: Israel Trauma and Resiliency Center, Tel Aviv Sexual Assault Center, and the African Refugee Development Center.

Rachel currently resides in San Francisco, but lives for warm days at the beach.
