

David Agger

David Agger has over thirty years of experience in investment and finance. Since 1998 he has managed an investment partnership, Metropolis Partners, Inc. offering direct investment and financial structuring in the real assets industry. Direct investment and advisory activities focus on the acquisition of value added opportunities in solar energy, industrial and R&D office real estate in Southern California and the New England area. Mr. Agger is the Member of DGEP Management, LLC an early stage developer of distributed solar projects throughout the United States.

He has a longstanding record of community service in the Bay Area where he currently serves as a Director of the Jim Joseph Foundation and is a Member of its Executive Committee, and is Chair of the Investment and Finance Committee. He is also Director, Member of the Executive Committee and Chairman of the Investment Committee of the Bernard Osher Foundation (www.osherfoundation.org), Chairman of the Investment Committee for the Foundation for California Community Colleges (www.foundationccc.org), is a Board Member of the Sandler Foundation (www.sandlerfoundation.org) and is a past Member of the Board and a current member of the Investment and Endowment Executive Committees of the Jewish Community Federation of San Francisco (www.sfjcf.org).

Previously Mr. Agger was a Trustee, Member of the Executive Committee and was Chair of the both the Investment and Development Committees of the University of San Francisco (www.usfca.edu) was past President of the Mt. Zion Health Fund (www.mzhf.org) and past Board Member of the Institute On Aging (www.gioa.org)