

Heidy Zohar Ramirez

Grants Operations Associate

Heidy joined the Jim Joseph Foundation as a Grants Operations Associate in June, 2020. She works closely with Grants Management, Operations and members of the Program Team -- playing a part in supporting and coordinating various financial, operational, and communications functions related to grantmaking within the Foundation.

Prior to joining the Foundation Heidy worked as Director at Sha'ar Zahav, a reform synagogue in the Mission district of San Francisco. Heidy gained significant experience working in finance; having worked at Wells Fargo Asset Management as Associate for the Analytic Investors Equity Team and as Analyst for Bank of America's Global Banking and Markets. Heidy earned a Bachelor's degree in Business Economics from American Jewish University in Los Angeles.

Heidy grew up in Southern California. She is a passionate advocate for social and economic equity; a Jeremiah Fellow Alumni and regularly involved with Bend the Arc and RAC, the political and legislative outreach arm of Reform Judaism in the United States. Heidy enjoys exploring national parks, hiking, climbing, yoga, and running; as well as the arts, painting, piano, and singing. Heidy lives in San Francisco with her partner, Scott.
