

Jeffrey A. Schoenfeld

As Partner and Head of BBH's Global Institutional Business Development and Relationship Management, Jeff leads the firm's Institutional client activities on a global basis for a range of products/services. He joined BBH in 1984, was named a Partner of the firm in 1996, and has served numerous investment leadership roles during his 38-year BBH career, including Chief Investment Officer, Head of Asset Allocation, and Head of Fixed Income Management.

Currently, Jeff participates in several firm-wide oversight committees for Asset/Liability Management and BBH's volunteerism activities, BBH Cares. He also helps lead BBH's Diversity & Inclusion efforts and is the founding sponsor for the firm's LGBTQ Affinity Group, BBH Pride.

Jeff is passionately involved in several philanthropic organizations. He is the Immediate Past President of UJA-Federation of New York, the largest local philanthropy in the world. Preceding his role as President, Jeff was the Co-Chair of UJA's Annual Campaign and the Chair of UJA's Caring Commission, overseeing human service and community building programs in New York, and 70 countries around the world. Today, he chairs UJA's Allocation Steering Committee, and is a member of its Executive Committee, Finance Committee and Board of Directors.

Jeff currently serves as Chair of the Israel and Overseas Committee of the Jewish Federations of North America, helping to strategically guide global allocations for the North American Federation system. In this capacity, Jeff serves as a member of the Board of Governors of The Jewish Agency for Israel and a member of the Board of Directors of the American Joint Distribution Committee.

As a member of the Board of Directors of the Jim Joseph Foundation, Jeff is committed to supporting Jewish education, engagement and leadership development among of youth and young adults in the United States. Jeff also serves on the Board of Directors of the Jewish Funders Network, joining other philanthropists to address critical societal challenges. Jeff serves as a member of the Board of Directors of amfAR, a leading cure-focused global HIV/AIDS research organization, as well as the NPR Foundation, the country's leading provider of journalistic excellence and programmatic content for public radio and podcasts. And Jeff serves as a member of the Graduate Executive Board at The Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, working to expand Wharton's impact as the foremost teaching, research, and experience-led business school in the world.

Jeff received his B.A. in Economics from the University of California at Berkeley, and his MBA in Finance from The Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania.