

Shira Goodman

Shira Goodman is an Advisory Director at Charlesbank Capital Partners. Formerly, she was CEO of Staples Inc. Shira joined Staples in 1992 and was the first director of Marketing and Merchandising for the B2B delivery business. Her experience over 26 years with Staples includes leading the marketing, human resources and global growth functions. Prior to Staples, she was a manager at Bain and Company where she helped develop the initial business plan for the Staples delivery business, now a $10B+ company.

Shira serves on the Board of Directors of CarMax, CBRE and Henry Schein. She was included in Fortune's list of "Most Powerful Women" in 2017.

Shira is Chair of CJP (the Boston Jewish Federation) Board of Directors. She co-chaired the CJP Strategic Planning Committee and the recent CEO Search Committee. She has served as Vice President of the Board of Trustees of Gann Academy, Director of the Slifka Center for Jewish Life at Yale and President of the Solomon Schechter Day School of Greater Boston.

Shira received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Princeton University, an MBA from MIT's Sloan School of Management and a JD from Harvard Law School.

Shira is married to Rabbi Wesley Gardenswartz, and they have three children: Nat, Sam, and Jordana.