

Jenna Hanauer

Program Officer

Jenna joined the Foundation as a Program Officer in August 2022. Her work is primarily focused on the Foundation's Exceptional Jewish Leaders and Educators strategic priority area which includes a wide range of outstanding grantee partners that work to train and develop dynamic, pioneering leaders and educators who are attuned to the needs of young people today.

Prior to joining the Foundation, Jenna worked at the Jewish Federation of Greater Seattle where she served as Associate Director of Jewish Engagement. She oversaw an extensive portfolio of leadership development and engagement programs that supported hundreds of people on their Jewish journey plus stewarded the Israel & Overseas grantmaking process. Before relocating to the Pacific Northwest, Jenna lived and worked in a variety of international settings across multiple sectors and cities.

Jenna received her Bachelor of Arts from University of Wisconsin - Madison (On Wisconsin!) and her Master's of Science in Social Work from Columbia University. She grew up in Los Angeles and is excited to be back in California with her husband, young son, and dog.
